

Distinguished Professor Award

The Distinguished Professor award goes to an individual who arrived at KSU in 2010 and has served as a Discipline Program Coordinator in the Coles College of Business. The awardee teaches graduate courses solely and created a Library Website for Accounting 8000 to guide students to databases useful for effective research on accounting topics. He has over 46 published articles with eight manuscript awards and the recipient of two Foundation Prizes for Publication and the 2014 KSU Distinguished Graduate Faculty Award for Research and Creative Activity. He serves on the editorial board of four international journals where he received an Outstanding Service Award for his editorial board service.
