

Outstanding Professional Service Award

In the area of Outstanding Professional Service, this year's recipient has served as the President of the Georgia Political Science Association, has co-edited the association's peer-reviewed journal, Questions in Politics, for the past five years and was awarded the Georgia Political Science Association's Donald T. Wells Award for Outstanding Service in 2014. Since 2006 he has been a member of the Institutional Review Board for the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention in Atlanta, helping to vet new scientific protocols for the protection of human subjects involved in research studies and has offered his expertise at speaking engagements with local audiences, such as the Foreign Policy Association and the Atlanta Council on International Relations.
